Board of Directors of St. John's Community Services-Tennessee Holds Second Annual Golf Tournament to Benefit People with Disabilities

Bartlett, Tennessee—On October 3, 2011, the Board of Directors of St. John's Community Services (SJCS)-TN will host its Second Annual Swinging for a Cause Golf Tournament. Net proceeds from the event will be donated to SJCS-TN to assist people with disabilities to pay rent and utilities on their homes, and to live full and active lives in the community.

Registration begins at 10:00 am with the shotgun scramble start at 12 noon. The registration fee of $150 per person or $600 for a foursome includes the greens fee for 18 holes of golf on the beautiful Quail Ridge Golf Course, boxed lunch, a cart and dinner at the Awards Banquet when players finish.

This year, prizes of particular note include a $10,000 cash Hole-in-One prize courtesy of Joe Fracchia of Mass Mutual Financial Group. Additional prizes include:

- 3 Flights with per team member prize for first and second place in each flight
- Closest to the pin on all par 3's
- Longest Drive
- Most Accurate Drive
- Door Prizes for Everyone

Golf enthusiasts, sponsors, and donors are invited to participate by registering online at: <https://swingingforacause.dojiggy.com/> or onsite at Quail Ridge Golf Course at Monday's event. Golfers can also contact Randy Timberlake, Event Co-Chair, at 901-482-6582 for information on ways to participate in the Swinging for a Cause Tournament.

SJCS was founded in 1868 by the parishioners of St. John's Episcopal Church in Washington, DC. In 1999, this historic nonprofit agency came to Memphis to assist people who were transitioning from the Arlington Developmental Center and returning to their home communities. In 2001, SJCS-TN expanded services to Jackson, TN. Today, SJCS-TN provides adults with intellectual, developmental and other disabilities comprehensive services so that they may live, work, participate and develop relationships in the Memphis and Jackson communities of their choice. SJCS-TN has earned three-year CARF Accreditation and the Federal Court Monitor's "quality tier" rating for 7 consecutive years.
